A Brief History of Gin

There is some dispute about who first created gin, but we can credit Dutchman Franciscus de la Boe Sylvius, a professor of medicine who was experimenting with juniper as a diuretic in the 1550s. He infused juniper into white spirit and it was sold in chemists as a treatment for stomach aches, gout and gallstones. During the Thirty Years War (1618-1648) Dutch soldiers in the chilly trenches were fed gin for its warming properties and bravery inducing effects, which is where the phrase “Dutch courage” came from. When Dutchman William of Orange became King of England he took gin with him. At the time England was at war with France so they had stopped buying French brandy and wine and started distilling gin. So, if you need a little Dutch Courage, make sure it's gin.

The Gin Craze

Binge drinking isn't anything new. The Gin Craze that swept 18th century London spawned as many social problems and fuelled as much public outcry as anything we read about in the papers today.

In over-crowded, slum-ridden Georgian London, gin was the opium of the people. For a few pennies, London's poor found entertainment and escapism from cold and hunger at the bottom of a glass. In 1730, around 10 million gallons of gin were being distilled in the Capital each year and sold from 7,000 dram shops. In fact, it's estimated that the average Londoner drank a staggering 14 gallons of the stuff a year!

Invented in Holland, gin only became popular in England when Dutch-born William of Orange took the English throne in 1688. By the end of the century, we were at war with France. So, to protect our economy and help the war effort, the government put a heavy duty on the import of spirits and lifted restrictions on domestic spirit production. In doing so, they created a healthy market for poor quality grain – which could only benefit the many landowners who sat in Parliament. The resulting trade also created a rich source of tax revenue.

The effects were devastating. Gin was blamed for misery, rising crime, prostitution, madness, higher death rates and falling birth rates. The vice-chamberlain Lord Hervey remarked that, “Drunkenness of the common people was universal, the whole town of London swarmed with drunken people from morning till night.” In one notorious case of 1734, a woman named Judith Dufour collected her two-year-old child from the workhouse, strangled him, dumped the body in a ditch and sold the child's new set of clothes for 1s and 4d to buy gin.

As public outcry grew, the government was forced to take action. The 1736 Gin Act taxed retail sales at 20 shillings a gallon and made selling gin without a £50 annual licence illegal. In the next seven years, only two licences were taken out. Whereas reputable sellers were put out of business, bootleggers thrived. Their gin, which went by colourful names such as ‘Ladies Delight’ and ‘Cuckold's Comfort’, was more likely to be flavoured with turpentine than juniper. At worst, it was poisonous, containing horrifying ingredients such as sulphuric acid.

In 1751, artist William Hogarth published his satirical print ‘Gin Lane’, which depicted such disturbing scenes as a gin-crazed mother, covered in syphilitic sores, unwittingly dropping her baby to its death down some cellar stairs while she takes a pinch of snuff. Aided by powerful propaganda such as this, the 1751 Gin Act was passed. This was more successful. It lowered the licence fee and forced distillers to sell only to licensed retailers trading from respectable premises.

A change in the economy also helped turn the tide. A series of bad harvests forced grain prices up, making landowners less dependent on income from gin production. They also forced food prices up and wages down, so the poor were less able to afford their drug of choice. By 1757, the Gin Craze was all but dead.

Mother's Ruin

Gin was called mother's ruin because in the mid eighteenth century the effects of gin on the family and economy were disastrous. Considered the poor man's drink due to its affordability, gin drinking had started out as medicine but due to its easy availability, men became impotent while women became sterile causing the London birth rate to decline drastically. In 1723 the death rate in London outstripped the birth rate and it remained higher for the next decade with as many as 75% of babies dying before reaching the age of five. Much of the Gin was drunk by women, consequently the children were neglected, daughters were sold and Gin was given to babies to quieten them. Also, drinking a pint of gin and having an extremely hot bath was recommended as a way to induce a miscarriage in 18th century Britain please, with a twist of lime"*

The Gins of Ireland

Thin Gin

Thin Gin is a new Irish dry gin from Blackwater Spirits. The distinctive juniper perfume mingles with strong citrus notes of orange, lemon and lime on the nose. It uses all Irish grown botanicals such as apple, wild thyme, elder flowers, white clover and tansy.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a slice of orange

Cork Dry Gin

Its combination of Juniper berry, Lemon, Lime, Coriander and Cork Dry Gin's mystery ingredient giving it its uniquely refreshing flavour.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a wedge of lime

Bonac 24 Gin

A high quality gin is the first product from a new distillery established in Newtownmountkennedy, Co. Wicklow. The final ingredients for Bonac 24 are Juniper, Angelica Root, Cassia, Coriander, Star Anise, Cardamom, Cucumber, Spearmint, Pear, Lemon, Bergamot, Curacao which can all be seen illustrated on the botanical bird which appears on the label. The classic predominant juniper taste gives way to a lingering spice, and evocative earthy notes are mingled with fresh citrus. A good base of green fruit on the finish provides a warm and refreshing aftertaste which is distinctive and sweet.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water mint & lime

Method and Madness Gin

Made at the Micro Distillery, Middleton, famous for its Irish Whiskey. This Irish Micro Distilled Gin contains 16 eclectic botanicals led by Black Lemon and Irish Gorse flower; giving it notes of citrus and spice with a measure of chaos.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & slice of lemon

Nora's Irish Dry Gin

This has classic London Dry character and has been created exclusively for Tigh Nora, award winning Gin Bar in the heart of Galway city. Named after Nora Barnacle, the wife and inspiration of James Joyce. A delicate, aromatic, and lightly perfumed gin, distilled in pot stills with a range of botanicals including juniper, peach, rose petal and bitter orange peel.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, grapefruit, mint & black pepper

Blackwater Wexford Strawberry Gin

The strawberries for this gin were grown just outside Enniscorthy in County Wexford. For maximum flavour the strawberries are distilled but even more are added before bottling to enhance the flavour.

This is a limited edition gin and will not last long! It's subtle and fruity but still very much a classic London dry styled gin, with nice touches of citrus and juniper.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, strawberries & black pepper

Dingle Gin

This is very well made and has a classic London dry gin character. Distilled in pot stills with a range of botanicals including Rowan Berry, Fuschia, Bog Myrtle, Heather, Chervil and Hawthorn.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a lime wedge & black pepper

Tigh Nora

Micil Gin

A luxury Connemara Gin with extraordinary flavour, handmade at Micil Distillery using local flowers and herbs. A fragrant citrus nose, with hints of heather and bog-myrtle, gives way to classic juniper and sweet liquorice notes, warm spice and a silky lasting finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a slice of lemon

Mór Irish Gin

Mór is distilled in Tullamore and is governed by local botanicals and they change as the seasons do. As flavours drift in and out of season, they tailor their production. It has earthy root botanicals, subtle florals and wild berries that come together to create a new breed of Gin. These botanicals are juniper, angelica, coriander, rosemary, blackberry, raspberry. The sharp familiar taste of Juniper and coriander root meet the sweetness of Raspberry, all lightly graced by the perfumery of angelica, rosemary and fresh water. Pure in taste and bold in simple flavours. An adventurous spirit, for the adventurous in spirit.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water basil & raspberry

Bertha's Revenge

A small batch milk gin which uses whey alcohol as its base. It is named after the world's oldest cow, who died at 48 years of age in Co. Kerry in 1993. Using whey alcohol from Irish dairy farmers, natural spring water and a mix of foraged botanicals, the gin is fragrant on the nose, has a soft mouth-feel and warming spicy middle nose. On the palate, the whey alcohol base comes to the fore. Effortlessly smooth from the start, sweet orange, coriander and peppery Alexanders are joined in a warming motherly caress of cumin, clove and cardamom. The generous nature of the spirit washes over the palate, finishing in a gentle spice-tinted heat that delivers a considered murmur of approval from your taste buds.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & lime

Connacullin Gin

The first gin released from The Connacht Whiskey Company. The gin contains a variety of Irish botanicals including elderberry flower and hawthorn berry. The gin was produced by award winning gin maker, Robert Castell. It contains strong notes of juniper and hints of berry on the nose and is bottled at 47%. The name Connacullin is a merging of two County Mayo Lakes, Lough Conn and Lough Cullin, which are the source of the water used at the distillery.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & strawberries

Glendalough Wild Botanical Gin

Their first Gin to represent an entire year in beautiful Glendalough. They have created a gin which epitomises the style of production which they have used for their 'Wild Seasonal' Gins but yet combined the styles of flavours, created a flavoursome, complex gin. The taste is cool and mellow at first, rushing to nectarous Summer flowers and hints of Autumn fruits finally giving way to warm spice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of grapefruit & min

James Joyce Gin

Distilled with delicate notes of bay leaf, orange and cloves, this smooth blend of nine botanicals plays tribute to the fruit and spices from the dinner table in James Joyce short story (The Dead 1914) and the famous bar of lemon soap purchased by Leopold Bloom in Ulysses. Botanicals: Bay leaf, Heather, Cloves, Coriander, Juniper, Cassia bark, Orris root, Angelica root and orange peel.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & orange

Tigh Nora

Graham Norton Gin

This Irish GiN is small batch distilled in West Cork, not far from Graham's Cork home. Local ingredients are foraged to round out the blend of 12 botanicals that gives Graham's GiN its London Dry style and a flavour as distinctive as the man himself. Botanicals include lemon peel, liquorice root, gooseberry, elderflower, rose hips, and fuchsia flowers to make a few.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a lemon twist

Blackwater Juniper Cask Gin

This Juniper Cask Gin has rested in wood made from Juniper trees for at least 30 days before bottling. These juniper barrels were made especially for the distillery and, as juniper trees are relatively small, they can't be larger than 50 litres. The same botanicals used in Blackwater No. 5 are used in this gin, but in different proportions. The sweeter roots like liquorice are increased so the gin isn't overpowered by the astringent juniper wood. The result is a straw-coloured gin, complex and aromatic with plenty of character and a wonderful long finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & orange

Blackwater No.5 Gin

No. 5 is a superb London Dry style gin which is made at the Blackwater Distillery in West Waterford. Each batch is carefully made in small amounts from pure spirit, soft local water and fresh botanicals. This makes an outstanding G&T. It's dry and floral on the palate. The juniper is prominent but there is also a surprisingly floral element. Flavours of lavender, lemon, orange, rose, patchouli, lemon balm and gentle spice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a lime wedge

Drumshanbo Gunpowder Gin

Connacht's first ever Gin is a hand-crafted gin made in the Shed Distillery, Drumshanbo, Co Leitrim. Delightfully fresh and rounded up front with citrus, juniper & spicy notes immediately evident. The expected Juniper follows close behind. Gunpowder Tea, meadowsweet & Coriander are all notable. The overall impression is of a very well balanced and surprising gin.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of orange & mint

Boatyard Double Gin

From county Fermanagh comes this great tasting gin that has been distilled in both pot and column stills. The juniper berries are treated in special process borrowed from the Dutch in which double contact with the spirit is achieved hence the term 'double gin'. This is a classic dry style gin with plenty of bite from the juniper as well as some well-balanced touches of coriander, lavender, citrus and liquorice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & grapefruit

Jawbox Gin

A single estate gin that is made in collaboration with the Echlinville Distillery. All the barley used for the spirit is grown and malted locally. Distilled very slowly in a traditional copper pot still for the best quality spirit and maximum influence from the botanicals after they have steeped overnight in the warmed spirit. While most of the botanicals are 'steep and boil' 3 of the botanicals use the vapour extraction method to preserve their delicate flavour and aroma. Botanicals used are, Juniper Berries, Coriander Seed, Cassia Quills, Angelica Root, Black Mountain Heather, Lemon Peel, Cardamon, Liquorice Root, Grains of Paradise, Orris Root, Cubebs.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Ginger Ale, lime & mint

Tigh Nora

Micil Spiced Orange

A reimagining of their classic gin, distilled with handpicked Connemara flowers and herbs, and enriched with vibrant orange zest and warm rounded spice. This gin has distinct warming orange notes, with classic Micil heather and floral tones. Balancing sweet and tart textures lead to a round, spicy finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crisp Tonic Water & a slice of Orange

Echlinville

Made in pot stills at the Echlinville distillery in County Down. This is a classic dry Irish gin with a subtle hint of juniper as well as the usual flavouring botanicals. All of Echlinville's barley is grown locally which is then malted on a farm close to the distillery then entirely fermented and distilled on site.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crisp Tonic Water a wedge of lime & mint

Mór Irish Gin - Pineapple Edition

A limited edition of 2,000 bottles, the Mór Irish Gin Pineapple Edition is a fresh addition to the Mór range of gins. While the pineapple is the star, it's complemented by lemongrass, lime and bergamot. The juniper finish is still there, but the overall taste takes you on a very pleasant trip to the Caribbean. It goes very well with tonic, but if you're more adventurous, it could be worth trying it with lemonade or ginger ales.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crisp Tonic Water or Schweppes Ginger Ale & a wedge of lime

Drumshanbo Gunpowder Gin with California Orange Citrus

A delightfully citrusy Irish gin inspired by the sunny state of California! This gin is a real delight with exotic layers of fresh citrus, oriental botanicals, and gunpowder tea with added subtle hints of California Orange citrus to create a gin like no other.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crisp Tonic Water & a slice of grapefruit

Von Hallers Gin

Named after Albrecht von Haller, a famous physiologist and naturalist of the German enlightenment who founded the Old Botanical Garden of Göttingen University in 1736 from whence the botanicals used for this gin come from! Halleria lucida, German ginger, lemon verbana are handpicked in this German botanical garden, where over 12,000 species grow, and transported to The Shed Distillery in Drumshanbo, Ireland where this German/Irish gin is created.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crisp Tonic Water, a slice of lemon & orange

London Dry Gin

Broker's 40% Gin

A classic London dry gin that is made in an ancient distillery near Birmingham. Only traditional botanicals are used such as juniper, citrus, coriander and liquorice among others.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lemon & lime

Hayman's London Dry

Hayman's London Dry is a double gold winning gin distilled to a family recipe of 10 botanicals. These botanicals are steeped in grain alcohol for a full day prior to distillation which allows the oils and essences from the botanicals to impart into the alcohol. There is a consistent balance of juniper, coriander, lemon and orange peel which is vital in creating this traditional style. Orris root, cinnamon, cassia bark, and nutmeg give the dry characteristics and add to the depth and flavour.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lime & star anise

Rokeby's Half Crown Gin

A classic London Dry style, distilled in small batches in a traditional copper pot still. At 40.6% it carries a huge whack of piney juniper, with fresh citrus notes and some coriander seed spice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of orange & coriander seeds

Portobello Road Gin

This was formulated by a group of gin experts at the Ginstitute in The Portobello Star bar. After tasting their antique collection of old gins, they were able to formulate this classic London Dry gin based on long departed brands. A good, heavy dose of juniper characterises this gin which is accompanied by coriander, citrus, bitter orange, nutmeg and liquorice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, juniper & grapefruit

Beefeater Gin

Contains nine different botanicals: Juniper, Angelica Root, Angelica seeds, Coriander seeds, Liquorice, Almonds, Orris Root, Seville Oranges, and Lemon peel.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lemon zest & lime & black pepper

Gordon's Gin

Was first produced in 1769. The recipe for Gordon's is known to only twelve people in the world and has been kept a secret for 250 years.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lemon or lime wedge or a strawberry.

Beefeater 24

Keeping with the quality of Beefeater yet it has a twist and that is the addition of grapefruit and two teas. These make for a modern sensation that is renovation on the classic gin style. Beefeater 24 has a clean aroma that is delightfully complex with a bit of tannic citrus noticeable against the well-known taste of the base gin. The palate has more of the citrus but it is in a nice balance with the still juniper-forward taste. Its finish is characteristically dry and full of juniper and a touch of liquorice.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, grapefruit & black pepper

Tigh Nora

Langley's No 8

Named after the number of botanicals used, the final abv chosen was also supposedly the eighth tasted from a final shortlist of twelve possible percentages. It is aimed at the sophisticated male gin drinker. Made in small batches using the purest 100% English Grain Spirit, Langley's No.8 Distilled London Gin is hand crafted specifically to let the selected botanicals do the talking. An old-fashioned gin, perfect for a traditional gin and tonic.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & lemon zest

Bombay Sapphire

Bombay Sapphire has a ripe citrus aroma with spice and a touch of Juniper. The 10 botanicals are Almond, Lemon peel, Liquorice, Juniper Berries, Orris Root, Angelica, Coriander, Cassia bark, Cadeb berries & grains of Paradise.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, with mint, lime & black pepper

Bulldog Gin

A delicious English gin made with poppy, dragon eye, lotus leaves, citrus, almond, lavender and various other botanicals (12 in total). This is four times distilled in copper pot stills, and Bulldog had the highest rating ever received by a gin from Wine Enthusiast Magazine.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, black pepper, grapefruit & star anise

Sipsmith London Dry Gin

A particularly dry gin with a zesty, citrus finish. The quintessential expression of a classic traditional London Dry Gin. Bold, complex and aromatic, smooth enough for a Martini, but rich and balanced, perfect for a G&T.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lime & a juniper berry

Bombay Dry Gin

Using eight exotic botanicals of juniper, coriander seeds, angelica root, almonds, lemon peel, cassia bark, orris root & liquorice, this classic London dry gin offers a more traditional taste with strong juniper flavours and a powerful dry finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, grapefruit, juniper & lime

Sloane's Dry Gin

A lovely little dry gin made by Sloane's in the Netherlands. It is named after the 18th century botanist Sir Hans Sloane, who is said to have discovered many of the plants used to flavour gins today. A hearty handful of those botanicals have gone into Sloane's gin, including iris root, coriander, angelica root, cardamom pods, liquorice root and whole vanilla beans. Rather interestingly, Sloane's individually distill each of these botanicals for their gin, resulting in a unique flavour profile.

Tanqueray Gin

Originated in England but is now distilled in Scotland. A blend of the purest four-times-distilled spirit and a hand picked selection of four botanicals; juniper, coriander, angelica root and liquorice, London Dry Gin offers uniquely balanced gin experience. Said to have been Frank Sinatra's preferred gin, London Dry's edge and sophistication have long made it a favourite with the stars in fashion, film and music.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, mint, a lime wedge & a juniper berry

Martin Miller's Gin

You get a lovely strong citrus nose and taste, with the Juniper notes emerging half way through, then comes a lovely clean, soft finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a Strawberry & black pepper

Ish London Dry Gin

-ish is 5 times distilled in a traditional pot still in the heart of London. The highest quality English grain spirit is used along with twelve botanicals: juniper, coriander seed and angelica root blended with almond, orris root, nutmeg, cinnamon, cassia, liquorice, savory and lemon are macerated for 24 hours before the distillation begins, encouraging the expression of each botanical.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lime & orange

Caorunn Small Batch

Caorunn, pronounced 'ka-roon', is the Gaelic word for Rowan Berry – a Celtic botanical that forms the very soul of the gin. It is the taste of wild sophistication – an expert infusion of the five locally foraged botanicals of Rowan Berry, Bog Myrtle, Heather, Coul Blush Apple and Dandelion leaf and the six traditional botanicals of juniper, coriander, orange peel, lemon peel, angelica root and cassia bark.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, juniper berry & lemon zest

Jensen's Bermondsey Gin

Jensen's has been designed to replicate the old-style London gins from the heyday of the gin cocktail and is one of the only small-batch London Dry gins actually produced in London. Bursting with juniper flavour, with a luscious texture and aromatic bite, Jensen's is a taste of what London Dry used to be. A revelatory mixing gin.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & lemon

Thomas Dakin Gin

Made with eleven botanicals including juniper, orange peel, English coriander, angelica, cubeb pepper and liquorice as well as "a hint of red cole" aka horseradish! It's named after Thomas Dakin, who began producing gin in Warrington in the second half of the 18th century.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & orange zest

Fifty Pound London Gin

When William of Orange prohibited the importing of alcohol to England in the early Eighteenth Century, so began the production and consumption of (domestic) English gin by huge numbers of distillers, the majority being of dubious quality. Its popularity was such, especially amongst the poor, that gin was distilled and sold in one fifth of all London homes. In trying to curb this 'social evil', the 1736 Gin Act was introduced during the reign of George II, whereby an annual levy of £50 was imposed on those wishing to produce and sell gin. After six years, just two distilleries had agreed to pay this tax. This gin is distilled four times and has eight botanicals used in distillation, juniper berries, coriander seeds, grains of paradise, savory, orange & lemon peel, liquorice and angelica root.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, mint & orange

Tigh Nora

Cold River Gin

True to the spirit of Craft Gin, Cold River Gin is handcrafted from fresh Maine-grown potatoes, to the small batch copper pot distilling. Cold River boasts a small number of botanicals which are clearly identified: Juniper, Coriander, Citrus Peel, Orris Root, Angelica and Cardamom. The last one being the most significant departure from the traditional and classic gin profile.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a wedge of lime & strawberries

Hammer London Dry Gin

Hammer London Dry Gin is produced at Arcus, Oslo's biggest distillery. Delicate pine-forward juniper, with hints of orange zest and coriander. This spirit is smooth and light with a straightforward classic approach and finishes with a long dry, and "sticky," juniper note.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & lemon

Berkeley Square Gin

Berkeley Square London Dry Gin is the 'single malt' of the gin world. It is an ultra premium gin distilled in small batches in a traditional copper still. Centuries of tradition and expertise have gone into the crafting of Berkeley Square which is the ultimate gin for the discerning drinker.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lime & juniper berries

Boodles London Dry Gin

This takes its name from Boodle's gentleman's club in St. James's, London and is now produced at the Greenalls distillery. Famous members of Boodle's gentleman's club included former Prime Minister Winston Churchill and James Bond author Ian Fleming, which of course makes Boodles an obvious choice for a Vesper! This is smooth, mellow, herby and spicy and of course the traditional juniper flavour all come to the fore with Boodles Gin. A light gin, there's nothing over-powering or strong here.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a slice of lemon

Tanqueray No. 10 Gin

Tanqueray No. Ten Gin gets its name from being made in Tanqueray's number ten still. There is a misconception that Tanqueray 10 gets its name from the number of botanicals in the mix. The recipe for Tanqueray 10 has all four of the base botanicals from Tanqueray London Dry: juniper, coriander, angelica, and licorice, but it adds an additional four elements to the mix, including fresh white grapefruit, fresh lime, fresh orange, and camomile flowers for a total of eight botanicals.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a slice of grapefruit

Bobby's Schiedam Dry Gin

Launched in 2014, Bobby's Gin was inspired by a family recipe that began its life many decades earlier. The story begins in the early 50's when Jacobus Alfons, or Bobby to his family and friends, who was born in Indonesia, migrated to the Netherlands and settled in Schiedam. Bobby loved Dutch Genever but in his search for flavours reminiscent of home, he started infusing his Genever with familiar Indonesian spices and herbs. Bobby's Gin is multi-layered and soft on the nose – there is no spiritedness, yet it is incredibly fragrant. Lemongrass and rosehips burst on the nose in an intoxicatingly exotic mix. Complex clove and coriander seed flavours follow up these elements once tasted, with a refreshing zing from the lemongrass joining in.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water orange & cloves

Blackwoods 60 Vintage Dry

Blackwood's 60 is a limited edition 60% abv vintage dry gin with only a few bottles made each year to a total of 22,000, the same as the population of Shetland. Blackwoods 60 includes botanicals from Shetland including coriander, wild water mint, angelica root strain, introduced by the Viking settlers and sea pink flowers from the cliff tops and meadow-sweet flowers. These botanicals are the best, first-flush pickings of the season.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, juniper berry, lemon & lime

Sacred Gin

Sacred Gin is a hand made gin produced in small batches in London by Ian Hart. It is made with citrus, juniper, cardamom, nutmeg and Hougari frankincense as well as 7 other botanicals. In 2009 it was the Overall Winner at Ginmasters, with a score of 98 points out of a possible 100.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, orange & strawberries

Copper House First Rate Gin

Copper House gin is distilled from three locally-grown grains: barley, wheat and oats. This aromatic gin is bursting with juniper, fresh lemon and orange notes as well as hints of warning star anise.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & orange

Dodd's Gin

This small batch Gin is uniquely crafted in Battersea London using a proprietary distillation method. The majority of the distillation occurs in their 'Christina' still traditional 140 litre copper alembic. Some more delicate botanicals are reserved for 'Little Albion' an ultramodern cold vacuum still. These two spirits are then married for several weeks before being bottled and labelled by hand.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & lemon zest

Death's Door Gin

Death's Door Gin has a surprisingly simple botanical mix of juniper berries, coriander and fennel. Using juniper berries that grow wild on Washington Island with coriander and fennel sourced from within the state, Death's Door Spirits is able to showcase how complementary and complex simple expressions can be. Death's Door Gin employs a base of Washington Island wheat and malted barley from Chilton, Wisconsin. Death's Door Gin has a full London Dry flavour without all of the bitterness because of the extraction process and the base spirit used (i.e., vodka). In fact, you can taste all three botanicals: loaded juniper berries up front; spicy, citrusy notes from the coriander seeds in the mid-palate; and a soft, cooling finish provided by the fennel seeds.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, lime, juniper berries & coriander

No.3 London Dry Gin

Just three fruits and three spices, collectively known as botanicals, are all they deem essential to the flavour of No.3 London Dry Gin. Juniper, from Italy, not only gives gin its name, but also the unmistakable gin taste of pine and lavender. Sweet Spanish orange peel provides freshness in the form of clean, crisp citrus. Grapefruit peel gives an extra zingy lift. Angelica root delivers an earthy quality and helps to make the gin dry. Moroccan coriander seed releases a lemon flavour and a spicy, slightly peppery finish. And finally, cardamom pods which add a spicy, aromatic, yet warm bite.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & grapefruit

Tigh Nora

Jodhpur London Dry Gin

This is made in England, inspired by India but intended for the Spanish market. Botanicals include Belgian and Saxon angelica, Moroccan coriander and ginger. The delicate balance between bitterness, sweetness and spiciness has created a complex gin.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of grapefruit & lemon

Manchester Three Rivers

Well-balanced with a combination of 11 botanicals, subtle perfume on the nose precedes a particularly smooth mouth-feel with mid palette sweetness derived from vanilla, cinnamon, almond and oats. Finally, cardamom gives way to a satisfyingly long, spicy, black pepper finish!

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of orange & rosemary

Star of Bombay

Unlike other gins – who sometimes crudely boil their botanicals – all the flavour notes in Star of Bombay are slowly vapour-infused through a copper basket. Bombay Sapphire's existing signature botanicals were used – Juniper, Coriander, Lemon Peel, Orris, Angelica, Cubeb Berries, Grains of Paradise, Almonds, Liquorice and Cassia Bark and they added Bergamot Orange Peel and aromatic Ecuadorian Ambrette Seeds. The result is a gin like no other, it is a truly elegant spirit, one alive with bright, fresh aromas.

Sipsmith Dry Gin VJOP

All hail the juniper berry! If, like us, you think the juniper berry is a proper champion of the botanical world, then you'll love Sipsmith's V.J.O.P., which is jam packed with the fresh, peppery berries. V.J.O.P. (which of course stands for "Very Junipery Over Proof") is made in a similar way to Sipsmith's regular gin, except that the juniper has been turned up to eleven. With extra juniper added to the original recipe, even more is added while the gin is in Sipsmith's lovely pot still, and it's also vapour infused via their Carter Head. As if this wasn't enough to make the V.J.O.P. stand out in a crowd, it's also been bottled at 57.7% to give it a hefty, "junipery" kick.

Oxley Gin

Distilled at -5°C in order to preserve the flavour of all botanicals. Typical gin distillation uses heat to separate alcohol from other ingredients at a temperature of 78 degrees Celsius. Their claim is that these high temperatures cook the botanicals and negatively impacts the flavours. Cold distilling means that fresh flavours remain fresh-tasting in the final product.

City of London Dry Gin - No.1

City of London Gin is produced at the small City of London distillery which opened in November 2012. The distillery is based just off Fleet Street and is the first to open in the City of London in over 200 years. The distillery houses two copper stills which they use for producing their Gin and Vodka, and opens as a bar in the evenings. A modern London Dry style gin with big grapefruity citrus notes, this was relaunched in 2016 at a higher strength of 41.3%.

Four Pillars Rare Dry Gin

Four Pillars Rare Dry Gin is made in a small distillery in Yarra Valley, Australia. Everything the Four Pillars distillers make is based around their four pillars – the still, the water, the botanicals and love. It's sort of a bit like the four elements of hip hop. It was awarded THREE double gold medals at prestigious international competitions: the New York World Wine & Spirits Competition 2017.

Vidda Tørr

This Gin is from the Oslo Håndverksdestilleri. The gin is styled on traditional British dry gin but is made with foraged local botanicals from the Norwegian mountains including heather, yarrow, chamomile, bilberry, angelica root and meadowsweet. The clue is in the name you see, with Vidda meaning 'mountain plateau' and Tørr meaning 'dry'.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, blueberries & grapefruit zest

Fair Juniper Gin

Our exceptional taste comes from different factors. First, they use FairVodka as a base. Second, they macerate high quality juniper berries and spices for a week. Finally, they distil everything once in a Stupfler alembic. The juniper berries are sourced from a nature reserve in Uzbekistan. Fairtrade spices, as the juniper berries, cardamom and coriander, are sourced in the Varganza village, in the region of Samarkand.

Martin Millar's Westbourne Gin

Voted the “World’s Best Gin” for 2016 by The Drinks Report.

First launched in 2003, Martin Miller’s Westbourne Dry Gin was a response to requests by ‘mixologists’ for a version of Martin Miller’s Gin that would give a more ‘old school’ authenticity to their classic repertoire of cocktails and help them create more complex, fully-flavoured inventions. Martin Miller’s response was a gin with its emphasis on the spicier, peppery notes of cassia and nutmeg along with a higher strength. From the launch, it enjoyed an underground cult status as the bartender’s favourite, it became something of a closely-guarded secret among the bar fraternity.

G'Vine Nouasion

The original French Dry Gin. Bold, spicy, crisp, and aromatic. G'Vine Nouasion is the embodiment of intensity and spiciness – it captures the poised energy of the grape's evolution, from aromatic flower to luscious berry. It's a smooth and sophisticated canvas for a fine selection of 10 botanicals gently distilled in individual batches, including juniper berries, green cardamom, ginger roots and exclusive vine flower.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, juniper, lemon & black pepper

Eden Mill

Eden Mill Original Gin is based on a classic style of gin, but with a twist. Along with the usual juniper, angelica and citrus peel, locally foraged sea-buckthorn berries. The result is a light yet complex gin that works well in a G&T with either lime or pink grapefruit.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & a slice of grapefruit

Gin Mare

Gin Mare has long been the reference point for a gin that's pushed the boundary of what a gin could taste like. It's savoury and unusual, but balanced. It's a Spanish Gin made in Vilanova, Spain. Alongside 'traditional' botanicals juniper, bitter orange peel, Seville orange peel, lemon peel, cardamom and coriander seed there are four that are not quite so common; Arbequina olives, basil, rosemary and thyme. A very smooth yet complex gin with garrigue aromas following through to the mouth. Subtle flavours of coriander and green cardamom with zesty sunny lemons on the finish.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, rosemary and basil garnish

G'Vine Floraison

Hand crafted in Cognac, France, G'Vine Floraison emphasizes the vine flower which blossoms once a year, in mid-June, for just a few days before giving birth to a grape berry. This precious and delicate flower, which exists for just a few days before maturing into a grape berry, is immediately handpicked to preserve its exhilarating and spellbinding fragrance. The flower is carefully macerated in the neutral grape spirit during several days to obtain the best floral essence. There are fine aromas of juniper berries, ginger, liquorice, green cardamom and garrigue. It's very floral with full body and big mouthfeel.

Complex yet smooth character.

Brockman's Gin

Brockmans is a beautifully made, intensely smooth gin to be enjoyed into the night. It is deliciously sumptuous with a daring allure. The flavour notes that make Brockmans so unique are derived from an intriguing and unique bond of flavours. The Bulgarian coriander plays its part, it has an aromatic, almost gingery orange flavour, which marries beautifully with the softer, more rounded harmonies of blueberries and blackberries. This inspired combination, together with the dry, bitter sweet peel of Murcian oranges, prolong the deeper tones and serve to give Brockmans its intensely smooth, beautiful taste.

Dorothy Parker Gin

Superbly bright, effortlessly cool and very popular with cocktail lovers. We're of course talking about Dorothy Parker, the legendary writer, poet and satirist, as well as talking about the New York Distilling Company's Dorothy Parker Gin! A spectacular American gin, made with traditional and contemporary botanicals including juniper, elderberries, citrus, cinnamon, and Hibiscus Petals.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water a slice of grapefruit & lemon

FEW American Gin

Unlike any other gin, this offering from FEW Spirits is made using white whiskey (un-aged Bourbon) instead of more conventional neutral spirits which gives it a completely unique character! This gives the gin a good deal more body and depth than perhaps you would expect. It has subdued juniper notes and a good bit of citrus flavour. Some innovative use of home-grown hops in the botanical basket adds some interesting flavours, but overall this is very well balanced.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & strawberries

Leopold's Small Batch Gin

Hand crafted, hand bottled, hand labelled, and hand numbered, this small batch gin is truly unique. Master distiller Todd Leopold handicrafts every batch in a small 40-gallon copper still, blending uniquely American botanicals like hand-zested Florida Oranges and California Pummelos. These components lend citrus notes to the gin, and help distinguish American gins from their English counterparts.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of orange & thyme

FEW Barrel Aged Gin

Made using a different recipe to their American gin. This time they add more juniper and spices. The spirit is aged in small, highly charred oak barrels all of which adds up to a rich and highly flavoured spirit. This is probably not best suited for a classic G&T but will work wonders in a Martinez or in place of the whiskey in an old fashioned. Alternatively, it is one of the world's best sipping gins and can be enjoyed simply on its own with a little ice.

Perfect Serve: best sipped neat!

Bootlegger 21 Gin

Bootlegger 21 New York Gin is named in honour of the amendment that repealed Prohibition. The gin is crafted by first distilling Bootlegger 21 New York Vodka, which is made entirely from corn. Once the vodka has been distilled, it is steeped in five unique botanicals, including juniper, coriander, lemon verbena, orris root and bitter orange. "The botanicals soak for 24 hours," says Brian, and "then we redistill the gin through our 300 gallon pot still to remove colour and bind the flavours together." As a result, the gin has hints of pine and juniper on the nose, that give way to bursts of floral citrus, grapefruits, orange zest and spicy coriander on the palate.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water, a slice of grapefruit & and coriander seeds

GinRaw

A classy gin that is inspired by the aromas and gastronomy of Barcelona. The main spirit is initially distilled with juniper berries before being combined with spirit containing the more delicate botanicals. The botanicals used include classic Mediterranean and more exotic ingredients. The former all being fresh, including lemon peel from Murcia, cedrat peel from Valencia and laurel also from Spain. The more exotic ingredients include kaffir lime leaves sourced from Thailand, black cardamom from India and finally coriander seeds from Egypt. The result is less dry than you would expect. There are lots of floral flavours: lilac, violets, cherry blossom. Lemon balm, angelica and juniper with a little citrus peel.

Beefeater Burrough's Reserve

Beefeater Burrough's Reserve Batch 1 was Beefeater's first foray into aged gin under the Burrough's Reserve brand. Burrough's Reserve Batch 1 was rested in barrels which formerly held the French Aperitif Reserve Jean de Lillet. The wine itself is a blend of three grapes blended with a bitter orange liqueur; the barrels are French oak. The resultant spirit has a lovely, gentle golden color. No age statement is available.

Perfect Serve: Neat or with ice

Strane Oaked Gin

Unveiled in the latter half of 2016, it's the Strane Oaked Gin from the Smögen distillery in Sweden. This was matured for 18 months in a Sherry butt before being bottled at 55% ABV. They recommend replacing the whisky in your 'Whisky & Soda' with this tasty treat – which we reckon sounds like an awesome idea!

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Soda Water & a slice of orange

Genever

Bols Genever

As one of the oldest distilleries still in existence today, a mix of heritage and progressive attitude has combined into a potent mix in this bottling. Re-released in 2008, Bols Genever is an essential addition to any gin shelf, especially if you are seeking to make authentic historic cocktails. At 42% ABV, Bols Genever is triple distilled using over 50% maltwine (made from triple-distilled rye, corn and wheat) and neutral grain spirits. The use of a maltwine base is what sets Genever spirits apart from London Dry styles generally, as the more aromatic base spirit provides more malty and sugary notes. On the nose Bols Genever has strong grain and malt tones, complemented by sweet subdued juniper, honeysuckle and citrus notes. Rich and smooth on the palate, the liquid is a vibrant, younger type of Genever, complex and full of depth. This is a gin that a Whiskey or Scotch lover would appreciate.

Best served in Cocktails.

Old Tom

Langley's Old Tom

An Old Tom Gin from the Langley's range. Taking inspiration from a traditional style of slightly sweetened gin that was extensively enjoyed in 18th and 19th century England, the distillers behind Langley's created their own expression, which would be well-suited for using in cocktails like the Tom Collins.

Perfect Serve: Best served neat or in a Tom Collins

Jensen's Old Tom

Brilliant Old Tom gin from Christian Jensen. This was made to a recipe from the 1840s, and is naturally sweetened with larger quantities of botanicals than the original Jensen's London Gin.

Perfect Serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Crip Tonic Water & rosemary

Non Alcoholic Gins

Ceders Crisp Non Alcoholic Gin

Fresh and Floral, Cedar's Classic is a staple in their range, with notes of juniper, coriander and citrus. It is a distilled non-alcoholic spirit with a smooth palate and delicate finish.

Perfect serve: Schweppes Signature Collection Slimline Elderflower Tonic Water, mint & a slice of cucumber.

Once Upon a Gin Cocktail

Genever Old Fashioned

Bols Genever Gin, Sugar, Angostura Bitters & orange peel.

Before there was gin, there was Genever – described as the granddaddy of Gin. Like gin, Genever is a white spirit steeped with botanicals. Unlike gin, Genever has a distinctively malty grain base – its maltiness might remind you more of a much, much lighter Scotch; and though it's still a clear, juniper-steeped liquor, it tends not to be quite as sharply herbal as gin. If you like whiskey, you'll love this!

Gin Bramble

Tanqueray Gin, Chambord Liqueur, Lime Juice, Sugar

The Bramble, invented in 1984 by bartender Dick Bradsell, is one of the few drinks that fall into the category of “modern classics.” One of the founding fathers of London's cocktail scene, Bradsell created this cross between a Cobbler and a Gin Sour while working at Fred's Club in SoHo.

Himalayan Way

Gordon's London Dry Gin, Prosecco, Lemon Juice, Strawberries, Goji Berry Liqueur, Sugar

There are many variations of this modern day cocktail throughout the world but all should have a fruity flavour to them with a crisp finish of sparkling prosecco that always goes down a treat.

Plum, Sloe, Sour

Plymouth Sloe Gin, Plum Bitters, Lemon Juice, Sugar, Egg Whites

A lot like the Gin Bramble cocktail. This cocktail is a tribute to the sloe gin. Sloe gin unlike other gins takes longer to make and is usually made from dark fruits left sitting in the gin for a number of weeks until the flavour is just right. With the Plum Sloe Sour we wanted you to experience both a sloe gin and a wonderfully balanced sour to give you the best of both worlds.

The Wild Atlantic Way

Nora's Irish Dry Gin, Violette liqueur, lemon juice, Peach purée topped with Pinot Grigio

Where land and sea collide. Where untamed beauty abounds. Welcome to our Wild Atlantic Way cocktail, an experience as unforgettable as the Wild Atlantic Way itself! Leave the ordinary elsewhere!

The Most Unusual Garden

Hendrick's Gin, St. Germain Elderflower Liqueur, Coconut Water, Lime Juice, Sugar, Basil, Cucumber

This cocktail is a twist on the modern day classic the British garden. With the introduction of Hendricks gin to the market we are able to create a cocktail that brings your senses alive to walking through a working garden with strong basil and cucumber smells to it and a light refreshing finish to it.

Tom Collins

Jenson's Old Tom Gin, Lemon juice, Sugar, Soda water & a slice orange.

Named after a hoax that was doing the rounds of New York in 1874, the Tom Collins has immortalised itself into one of the most iconic gin cocktails around. The story of the hoax goes something like...

Tom Collins was a loud and boisterous man who was known to sit in taverns and talk harshly of nearly everyone he'd met, or in many cases, those he hadn't. Fortunately for those who fell victim to Collins' wrath, they had good friends who would immediately find their friend and let them know of all the profanity directed towards them. The victim was then encouraged to find Collins and confront him. However, when the victim went to the tavern where Collins was meant to be, he was nowhere to be found (because Tom Collins did not exist). It was then that those desperately looking for their revenge would ask at the bar for Tom Collins, and instead receive the sour cocktail. "Have you seen Tom Collins?"

Martini

Tanqueray No. 10 Gin, Dry Martini & Lemon peel. Make it a dirty with olive brine.

Ernest Hemingway pronounced in A Farewell to Arms, "I've never tasted anything so cool and clean... They make me feel civilized" Barnaby Conrad III, author of a book on the Martini's origin, claims that the drink was, in fact, invented in San Francisco, after a miner requested a pick-me-up in the city on his way to Martinez. There are also assertions that it originated in New York's Knickerbocker Hotel. Go on, be civilised like Hemingway!!

Negroni

Beefeater Burrough's Reserve gin, Campari, Sweet Vermouth & orange peel.

The most widely reported version of this drink's origin is that it was invented at Caffè Casoni in Florence, Italy in 1919. Legend tells that Count Camillo Negroni asked his friend, bartender Forasco Scarselli, to strengthen his favourite cocktail – the Americano – by replacing the soda water with gin. Scarselli added an orange garnish, rather than the lemon you'd usually get with an Americano, and the drink took off. Before long, everyone was coming into the bar for a 'Negroni.'

The Nora Barnacle

Monkey 47 Gin, Cointreau, lemon juice, raspberries & egg white.

Nora was the wife of literary giant James Joyce. She was born in the Galway Workhouse in March 1884; the exact date is unknown but is believed to be either the 21st or the 22nd. She lived on Augustine Street with her grandmother and then in Bowling Green with her uncle, where you can still see her house today. Nora was the inspiration for much of James Joyce's work, but she has also inspired us here at Tigh Nora's. And so, we have a great cocktail inspired by the great woman.

White Wine

Vistamar Brisa Sauvignon Blanc, Chile

Spring fresh floral and peach tones with a hint of honey offer surprising complexity of fruit for this level of wine.

Muddy Boots Chardonnay, Australia

Citrus, peach, melon and fig flavours, balanced by a light butterscotch character. A fresh, fruity interesting wine.

Vendemia Pinot Grigio delle Venezie IGT, Italy

Delicious balance of pear drops, white peaches and hints of elderflower, crisp, fresh with lovely wonderful balance of fruit acidity. Ideal partner to shellfish and delicate white fish.

Stoneleigh Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand

The aroma follows through to a palate that features ripe tropical fruit, melon and stone fruit flavours with a complex minerality, balanced by a tight and fresh acidity.

Prosecco

Prosecco Snipe

Enjoy a glass of sparkling Italian prosecco.

Belvini Piu Vino Frizzante

Pleasant and fresh. Pale straw yellow with greenish reflections. Bubbles are fine and light, clean and intense. Slightly fruity with apple and green fruit hints.

Casa Ghellar Prosecco Spumante

The darling sparkling Prosecco of Italy! Crisp, refreshing and wonderfully effervescent this classic wine is brimming with fresh fruits and floral notes and is alive with zingy fruit character and golden apples.

Champagne

Moet & Chandon N.V Champagne

Light elegant style with a fresh lively palate and an underlying creamy texture.

Dom Perignon 2019 Vintage

The fruit is majestic: ripe, fleshy and profound. Beyond the richness and a certain voluptuousness is a strong impression of consistency that prevails. The various sensations – silky, salty, sappy, bitter and briny – converge and persist.

Red Wine

Vistamar Cabernet Sauvignon, Chile

Lots of typical Chilean Cabernet varietal character, strawberry and blackcurrants on nose with leafy, red pepper undertones; quite soft and fruity but with some depth and structure; lightly dry tannins complete the finish.

Muddy Boots Shiraz, Australia

Nose of ripe black fruit, cracked black pepper, tobacco leaf and vanilla oak.
Well balanced and full bodied.

San Esteban Merlot, Chile

Pleasant plum and berry aromas followed by a medium body and spicy notes on the finish.
An easy wine to be paired with white meats, salmon, pastas and other everyday favourites.

Don Aparo Malbec, Argentina

Blackberry and plum fruits and spicy peppery characters on the palate which is supported by well-integrated ripe tannins.

Rose

Oliver & Greg's Rose USA

Exciting, juicy and refreshing. Lots of ripe, fresh red fruits, followed by a touch of sweetness.
